YMCA Day Camp Popular

Families in the Aliso Valley and San Clemente area have been registering for the South Orange County day camp at the rate of forty per period, "Y" Director Roger Carter reports.

Carter said: "We have two buses, — one serving the El Toro, Mission Viejo area and one which picks up day campers in San Juan Capistrano, Dana Point and San Clemente.

Our third period, said Carter, started Monday, July 15th and right now we have nearly forty registered with an expected enrollment of fifty to sixty. Period Three will include a trip to Knotts Berry Farm, a boat tour of San Diego harbor, crafts, hiking, swimming, and an overnight trip."

Interested families should contact the YMCA at 494-9431 for a registration blank.

El Toro's Gratian Bidart Named New San Joaquin School Board Chairman

By Carl E. Venstrom
Editor and Publisher

Highlight of the San Joaquin School District's monthly meeting last week was the board election of Gratian Bidart as their new president.

Bidart, long time El Toro rancher and member of the board, is replacing W. G.

Staples, of East Irvine, as president. Staples has served as president for the past six years and has been a board member for the past 19 years.

Ed Berry, of Mission Viejo, was elected clerk for the board and Ralph A. Gates, superintendent, was appointed as secretary to the board.

In relation to their yearly reorganization meeting, the board agreed to continue holding their monthly meetings on the first Wednesday of each month at 7 p. m.

Berry was also elected as the district's representative to the County Committee on School District reorganization.

Dr. William D. Stocks, assistant superintendent, gave a report on summer school which involves 1,000 students in all six schools. The summer program consists of basic courses and an enrichment program.

Board approval was also given to the hiring of 44 new teachers. Stocks reported that school will open in the fall with 206 class room teachers to serve approximately 5,800 students. Twelve teacher vacancies still exist.

The board accepted, with thanks, $84.57 from the PTA of the Marine School at El Toro. The money was designated to the purchase of library books.

FFA, 4-H'ers Display Lambs, Steers At Fair

You can count lots of sheep if you come to the Orange County Fair, July 16-21 at Costa Mesa. The sheep you will find there will not be the ordinary fence-jumping kind; these are choice spring lambs raised by Future Farmers and 4-H Club members.

For these boys and girls raising sheep is a business enterprise as well as a learning experience. Each member selects, buys, and feeds out his own animals. Some members have a small breeding flock and produce their own lambs; others buy day-old bummer or orphan lambs from a commercial flock and raise them on a bottle.

Most members, however, buy 50-pound feeder lambs that have been weaned from their mothers. It takes 100 days plus 300 pounds of grain and hay to feed out a lamb to choice market quality. The finished lamb weighs close to 100 pounds and will yield about 50 pounds of lamb chops, roasts and legs of lamb.

The County Fair is both the showplace and the marketplace for these 4-H and FFA lambs; there they are exhibited and judged. Those blue-ribbon lambs grading choice or better are sold through the Junior Livestock Auction to the highest bidder.

The auction will be held on the fairgrounds Friday, July 19. In addition to lambs, blue-ribbon beef and hogs will also be sold. Everyone is invited to buy — individuals, business concerns, service clubs. An auction committee will help make all the processing arrangements. For more information contact the Orange County Fair, 545-1131.

Come Visit Us At the Fair

THE RANCHO REPORTER would like to extend to all Southern Orange County residents a hearty invitation to visit our booth at the Orange County Fair.

The Fair opened Tuesday, July 16 and will run until Sunday, July 21 at its permanent location just off Newport Blvd. on Fair Road. The Exposition is open every day from 10 a. m. to 12 midnight.

THE RANCHO REPORTER will be sharing its booth just inside the main doors of the New Products Building with FM Radio Station KYMS.

We plan to have a free drawing for valuable gifts.

SJSD's Bidart, Gates Excellent Educators

CARL VENSTROM

Congratulations to the Board of Trustees of the San Joaquin School District on their appointment of Gratian Bidart, of El Toro, as their president for the coming year.

We became acquainted with Mr. Bidart shortly after starting to publish here and have always found him to be an interested, constructive citizen.

We have also been covering the school board meetings of the San Joaquin School District for the past two years and have found Bidart to be an independent thinker, logical and fair in his recommendations. He is an excellent choice for a president of a school board, especially in an area that is growing as fast as ours.

Thanks should also go to W. G. Staples, of East Irvine, for his 19 years of service to the board, six of which as president. The community is also fortunate that he will continue to serve as a member of the board.

Bidart, Staples and Edwin T. McFadden, Jr., of El Toro, have certainly given the board stability, direction and understanding. This has been very fortunate since the student enrollment has increased in our area so fast during the past four years.

This might also be a good time to add that our community is fortunate to have the caliber of man such as Ralph A. Gates as superintendent of schools. Gates has served our community as superintendent for more than 20 years and thoroughly understands the community's needs for education.

Gates, and the entire board, have worked hard to keep abreast of the demands of our community. How about stopping by some time to attend a board meeting and give your support to a hard working group.

San Joaquin School Board meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month at 7 p. m.

Boy Scouts Sponsor Orange Empire Rodeo Championships

Rodeo, one of the roughest, toughest sports on the American scene, will come to Orange County July 19-21 when the Orange Empire Championships are held at the Fairgrounds in Costa Mesa as part of the Orange County Fair and Exposition.

Some of the top rodeo circuit riders will compete for prize money by riding wild brahma bulls, bucking bareback broncos, roping calves, and wrestling steers. Ronnie Rasco, world champion team roper from San Diego will be one of the competitors.

Net proceeds from ticket sales will go to Orange Empire Area Council, Boy Scouts of America which is the sponsor. Funds will be used to further the Council's youth programs. Explorer units of the Council have been placed in charge of physical arrangements for the event.

Five performances are scheduled for the three-day International Rodeo Association-sanctioned event: 8 p. m., Friday (July 19), and 2 and 8 p. m., Saturday and Sunday (July 20-21).

July 20 has been established as "Special Scout Day" and, as a special tribute to the scouting movement, Scouts and Leaders in uniform will be admitted to the Fairgrounds free on that day. General admission tickets to the Rodeo for Cubs, Scouts, Leaders, and parents, are reduced to $1 for the two "Scout Day" performances. Half-price Fairground admission tickets will be offered to holders of rodeo tickets if tickets are purchased in advance.

Tickets may be purchased at Orange Empire Area Council, Boy Scouts of America Servicenter, 3811 S. Bear St., Santa Ana.

Saddleback Bench Club Enrolls 1st Member; Golf Plans

Saddleback College's vice president of the Board of Trustees, Patrick J. Backus, became the first charter member of the Bench Club's membership drive.

The Bench Club, an organization supporting the college athletic program, has coordinated the membership drive with its first Gaucho Invitational Golf Tournament, scheduled July 26. The benefit golfing event, with proceeds helping the athletic program, will be staged at Mission Viejo Golf Club.

Participants in the tournament, open to all interested persons, do not have to be members of the Bench Club, but the dual activity of the membership drive and tournament are the initial "kick off" of the organization.

Membership dues are $15. Six season tickets to reserve seats in a special Bench Club section at the football games will be available to members, at a discount price, said the co-chairmen. Bench Club members will receive sporting events privileges.

Purpose of the club is to actively participate in assisting the educational athletic program, the co-chairmen said.

The Bench Club is seeking assistance for the tournament and participants.

Cost to enter the tournament is $15. This day-long event will include a 18-hole tournament from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m., a 9-hole tournament at 3 p. m., and a putting, longest drive and closest-to-hole contest.

Angels, Red Sox Bag Little League Crowns

By Dan Wooldridge

Final action in the Saddleback Little League last week saw the major league Angels defeated the first half champion Cardinals, 3-0.

The final standings for the second half of the season on the major league level were: Angels, 7-1; White Sox, 6-2; Athletics, 3-5; Cardinals, 3-5; Giants, 3-5; and Dodgers, 2-6.

The minor league Red Sox, champions of the first half defeated the second half winners, the Cards by scores of 25-9 and 15-13 for their league championship.

With regular play being completed an all-star team has been chosen to represent the SLL in regional play against the Del Obispo League.

Members of the all-stars include: David Schultz, John Kelly, Mark Dobbs, Mark Hoyal, and Tim Taylor, Angels; Ritchie Rommell and Gary Connley, Cardinals; Buddy Gonzales, Dodgers; David Oviat and Mario O'Brien, Giants; David Barron, Jim Clifford, and Jeff Le Grand, White Sox; and Jeff Singhe, Dodgers and Gabby Grihelva, Cardinals as alternates.

A banquet will be held on Saturday, July 20, at Mannings for the major league boys and their families. Another banquet will be held for the minor league boys and their families on July 23. Awards will be presented to sponsors for their assistance.

Irvine Coach Captures MV Los Borachos Golf Title

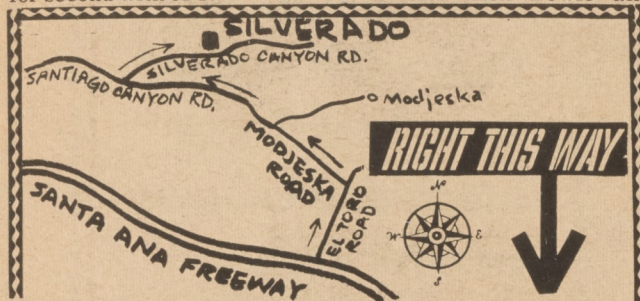

Dick Davis, University of California at Irvine basketball coach, captured low gross honors with an 80 in the El Diablo flight at the 2nd annual Los Borachos Golf Tournament staged Friday, June 28, at Mission Viejo Golf Club. Biff Naylor and Cal Loop tied for second with 82's.

In the Championship flight (Peoria system), low net honors were won by John McCray, with a 58, who became Los Borachos "amateur golf champion of the world." Taylor Richardson, defending champion, was second with 64. Cal Loop, Tommy Jeffries and Alex Bowie all tied for third with 68's.

In the Swallows flight (established handicaps), Tony Moiso, vice president of Mission Viejo Co., won top honors with a 70 (91-21); Dr. Bob O'Callaghan was second with a 71 (87-16); and Don Zellner third with 77 (106-29).

The Los Borachos flight (highest gross score) was "captured" by Tom Colvin who shot 144, with second place going to Frank Fehse with a 135.

Wumps Arrive At Viejo's O'Neill Park

"The Wumps are here, The Wumps are here!" is the cry of happy Mission Viejo children whose dream of having playground equipment in Marguerite O'Neill community park finally came true.

Making their wish a reality were ambitious members of Mission Viejo Woman's Club of Deane Homes who actively campaigned throughout Mission Viejo for donations towards purchase of the fantasy play equipment.

"Wumps" are funny faced little creatures which provide a gyrating ride for fascinated children who may choose between riding in the mouth of "Mug Wump" or on the huge nose of "Schnozz Wump."

"The Old Woman's Shoe," a larger piece of equipment, allows for hours of play on its handy ladder of shoe laces or its two types of slides. The colorful climber also has a large platform and a shady area underneath for endless moments of play.

Children who enjoy hanging and swinging will especially like the "Rainbow Ladder." Shaped like a rainbow the graceful ladder promotes healthful exercise and fun.

Directing the campaign were Mrs. Harvey Stearns, president and Mrs. Robert Rozunko, chairman. Mrs. Hank Ballard was block chairman. Also donating time were Deane Brothers who stripped the grass and installed the sand.

The Mission Viejo Company donated the services of its architect Frank Rademaker who designed the area, ordered the equipment and supervised the installation.

The park, which serves the entire community, is located on San Doval adjacent to Marguerite O'Neill school.

Adelines Host 'Come To The Fair'

Spruce up the Surrey and press the Holiday hair ribbons — it's time to "Come to the Fair."

The local Sweet Adelines will be doing just that when they attend the Summer Sweet Adeline Regional Meeting on Saturday, July 20, in Tustin. Hostess chapter for the event is the Saddleback Chapter of Tustin.

Several of our local members will be attending the business meetings and craft classes during the day; they will be joined by other members, husbands and friends for the evening barbecue and program.

The meeting's theme will be a most fitting background to the old-fashioned Barbershop Harmony sung by all Sweet Adelines. Featured at the "Fair" will be colorful bazaar tables, a salad buffet luncheon, and a dinner barbecue.

Double Quartets will be delighting the members and public during the Showtime, which will be at 8 p. m. All events will take place at Foothill High School, 19251 Dodge Avenue, Tustin. Tickets for the Showtime will be available at the door.

A Traditional 4th of July In Capistrano Highlands

Capistrano Highlands Homeowner's Association presented their annual 4th of July celebration. The entire community turned out for a full day of festivities.

The day began with the Kiddies Parade at 11 a.m., led by a color guard comprised of Girl Scouts, Brownies and Boy Scouts. A fire truck from the Laguna Hills Fire Department followed the color guard and the Highlander's Band marched just behind this.

The band was comprised of some 15 children and adults and led by Mrs. Melvin Goldfarb. The drum majorettes were all youngsters from Capistrano Highlands who have been studying with one of the local teenagers, Yvonne Hinck.

While the musically inclined children of the community set the pace, it was the one hundred and seventy five other children that added the color and spirit with their costumes, floats and decorated bikes and wagons.

It was a colorful, fun-filled spectacle winding through Capistrano Highlands to Costeau Park. The clown was busy entertaining the youngsters and adults as well as passing out candy and bubble gum.

Starting at 1 p.m. were the relays and races in which all ages participated, from the diaper derby to the adult egg toss. At 4:30 p.m. the softball game between the parents and teenagers began and this provided exercise and a lot of enjoyment for all concerned.

At 6 p.m. the families joined together for a picnic supper and at 7:30 p.m. everyone enjoyed the long awaited awards presentations made for the relay races, decorations and costumes.

Prior to the awards everyone at the park enjoyed free ice cream donated by Macco Corporation.

The day ended with a spectacular 4th of July fireworks display. The fireworks were contributed by each family.

Over 350 children participated in the day's events and a large majority of the parents joined with their youngsters to celebrate the holiday.

Meet Your Neighbor Lew Monson, El Toro's Man From The Golden Bull

By Dan Wooldridge
News Editor

Lew Monson, manager of the new Golden Bull Restaurant is looking forward to next week's grand opening for the new El Toro steak and chop house.

Monson, old-timers will remember, opened the Outrigger Restaurant of Laguna Beach in 1960. Lew has spent the last 30 years working in the food business and the last 12 years in management with the Golden Bull chain.

Monson believes, "management in a restaurant chain must be flexible and adapt to suit the area served." The former middle westerner moved to California in 1933 and currently resides in Costa Mesa.

The "Golden Bull" will open during the week of July 22-29 depending on the speed county regulations are met. Spanish Mediterranean architecture throughout the $350,000 facility marks the quality of workmanship being put into this new restaurant.

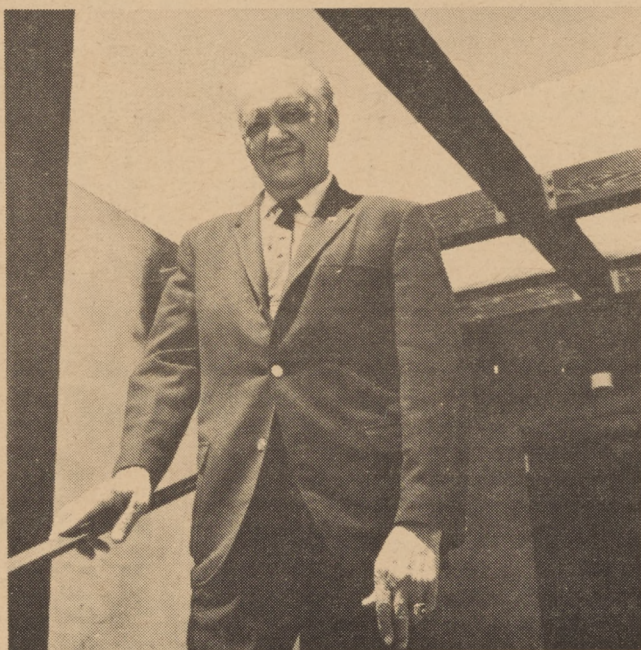

The Golden Bull will be divided into four main rooms; first, the 24-hour coffee shop seating 180; second, the main dining room seating 130; third, the garden dining room seating 60-70 with special facilities for parties and meetings; and a cocktail lounge with piano bar seating 60-70 people.

According to Monson, the "Bull" will employ about 30-35 people with Lew in over-all charge of the entire facility.

The air conditioned restaurant will have a parking lot to serve over 100 cars and inside the richly appointed surroundings will make dining at the Golden Bull a pleasure for all.

Lew and his wife Marguerite belong to the St. Andrews Church in Newport where they are active in a Couples group. Mr. Monson is a life-time member of the Optimists International and was for two years the chairman of the Culver City Community Chest drive.

The Golden Bull is located on Bridger next to the Green Thumb in El Toro and all residents are invited to drop by and meet Lew Monson and enjoy a fine meal. (This space sponsored by Toro Disposal Service. Chuck Waltman, owner).

UCI Lets Contract

A contract for $236,000 has been awarded by the University of California, Irvine to the O.K. Coyle Co., of La Habra, for construction of the ring mall connecting new academic buildings and for campus park landscaping and development.

L. E. Cox, vice chancellor for business and finance, said the Coyle company was low among seven bidders for the project.

O. C.'s Leading Ballet Group To Perform at Art Festival

The Laguna Beach Civic Ballet Company, recently named a national honor company by the National Association for Regional Ballet, will present "Festival of Nations" on the Festival of Arts grounds on Sunday, July 21 and July 28 at 4 p. m. during the run of the Festival of Arts.

Some 16 dancers in colorful costumes will perform stylized versions of the dances of Czechoslovakia, England, Italy, France, Spain, Austria and the United States, according to the artistic director Lila Zali.

The Laguna company is the only one in Southern California to win the title of National Honor Company. The standard of its performers can be judged by the fact that several have been invited to join such prestige groups as the Stuttgart Opera and Chicago Opera Ballet Companies.

A popular feature of the Festival of Arts, the Sunday outdoor performances always draw large crowds of spectators who view the half-hour program after and before inspecting artists' booths.

The Festival of Arts opened July 12 and runs through August 24.

The board gave approval for the school district to file for the benefits available under Public Law 874 which gives monies from the federal government for the school cost of serving the children of military personnel.

Superintendent Gates said that the amount to be collected would be approximately $394,000.

Audience at the monthly meeting included residents from University Park and Mission Viejo and school personnel and three members from the County press.

Rex S. Nerison, recently appointed business manager for the school district, gave a report on data processing to the board with a recommendation for action.

The board accepted Nerison's recommendation and agreed to enter a contract with the Integrated Data Corporation in Costa Mesa.

Cut-off day for the board vacancy created by the recent resignation of Captain John N. Gossom, USN, of El Toro, is July 19th. Interviews for the vacancy will be held on July 22 with an announcement of the new appointment to be made on July 24th.

Gossom is being transferred from El Toro to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. He is a navy dentist.

Superintendent Gates and the board agreed to visit, during this week, the new La Paz School and Site No. 8, an elementary school, that presently is under construction.
